Banqueting

Every banquet deserves a setting that adds something extra to the occasion. That's where Ewood Park scores again. From the intimacy of the Directors Private Lounge where small parties can dine or to the impressive Premier or Jack's Suite where hundreds can enjoy commanding views across the spectacular sporting venue.

Banqueting – the very word conjures up visions of food in abundance, a succession of dishes, freshly prepared and brought to the table in style. Northcote at the Rovers are part of the same group as the award winning Northcote in Langho, Lancashire. Nigel Haworth works closely with Head Chef, David Lyon to ensure all the dishes have great flavours and freshness and are cooked to perfection.

We are happy to create bespoke menus for your event or you can choose from our set banqueting menus with prices starting from £22.00 per person.

"The event was fantastic. My husband was, in his words 'gobsmacked'. So as far as the Ewood team is concerned I have to say how wonderful they all were and the food was absolutely excellent and really well presented. The chef worked wonders in providing dishes for some friends who had dietary requirements. So all round I liked the room layout, the music just blended in, the food was brilliant and the team even made sure myself and hubby ate some food and had drinks so I was very pleased. I would therefore like to say a very special thank you to all who contributed to a very successful evening."
