BLACKBURN ROVERS MEMORIAL GARDEN

The ashes of loved ones can be scattered at the Memorial Garden situated at the corner of the Blackburn End and Riverside stand. This can be arranged through the Club Chaplain, at which time a short act of remembrance will take place.

The football club also has a Book of Remembrance available to view at the Blackburn End reception.

An inscription for those loved ones who's ashes have been interred in the garden of remembrance can be entered into the book which will then be displayed on the appropriate day.
